

Addendum to the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences Self-Evaluation Report

The following information is provided to clarify the structure and role of the EDS as discussed in 3.6.3 of the ANU College of the Arts and Social Sciences Self-Evaluation Report.

CASS until 31 January 2012 had an Education Hub under the Dean of Education and comprised of 5.6 FTE staff. From 1 February 2012 following the resignation of the Dean of Education this function has been re conceptualized under the GM CASS. The new arrangements involved the creation of the Education Development Studio (EDS) under an SM1 (previously an ANU08). This team is still being built and currently comprises 4.6 FTE staff. The primary role of the EDS is to work with the Assistant Dean Education (ADE) who replaced the Dean of Education. These changes have delivered substantial staff savings.
