1. This policy is effective from 10 September 2012.

2. This policy applies, except as specified otherwise, to Study Period 1 (1 January to 30 June, including Summer Session, Semester 1 and Autumn Session) and Study Period 2 (1 July to 31 December includes Winter Session, Semester 2 and Spring Session).

3. Students wishing to enrol in more than 24 units but not more than 30 units in a single Study Period must meet all of the following criteria in their current ANU program:
   - successful completion of at least 48 units
   - successful completion of at least 24 units of courses in a single semester
   - an overall mark average of at least 65% (NCN and WN counting as 0% in this calculation)

4. Students wishing to enrol in more than 30 units but not more than 36 units in a single Study Period must meet all of the following criteria in their current ANU program:
   - successful completion of at least 96 units
   - successful completion of at least 30 units of courses in a single semester
   - an overall mark average of at least 65% (NCN and WN counting as 0% in this calculation)

5. Up to 12 units of Summer Session courses that are both (i) taught, and (ii) for which all assessment is due and submitted, entirely between the release of results for Semester 2 in one year and the day before classes commence in Semester 1 of the following year, are excluded from this policy and are excluded from overloading calculations.

6. Enrolment in the International Alliance of Research Universities (IARU) Global Summer Program is excluded from this policy and is excluded from overloading calculations.

7. Students will not be given permission to enrol in more than 36 units in a single Study Period.
