

Australian
National University

REMEMBERING ANZAC TRAVEL AND STUDY IN 2021

- > Study intensively over June/July 2021
- > Further information email bruce.scates@anu.edu.au; or visit programsandcourses.anu.edu.au/2021/course/HIST2172
- > To learn more about the Anzac story visit onehundredstories.anu.edu.au
- > Explore the many meanings of Anzac across the Australian landscape.
- > Visit museums and memorials in Sydney and Melbourne and debate the way war is remembered.
- > End your tour in Darwin, where a World War II Memory Trail extends across and beyond Australia's northernmost city and through the spectacular landscape of the Northern Territory.

Anzac Remembered offers you the chance to study intensively over late June and early July 2021. You will speed up your degree, engage with leading cultural institutions and visit memory sites across Australia.

For further details (including information about student travel loans and subsidies) contact the course convenor bruce.scates@anu.edu.au.

Hurry, places strictly limited.

ANU College of Arts & Social Sciences